Minor in Environmental Design

The Minor in Environmental Design provides students from diverse academic backgrounds a broad foundation in the principles of community planning and the form and function of the built environment. The minor requires six courses (minimum of 18 credits) offered by the Department of Urban and Regional Planning: two required lower-division and four upper-division courses at the 300-level or higher selected in consultation with an advisor. The Minor in Environmental Design is typically completed within five to six semesters.

PD 120	Introduction to Urban Studies
PD 212	Urban and Environmental Planning
PD 300/400	3 credit course
PD 300/400	3 credit course
PD 300/400	3 credit course
PD 300/400	3 credit course

TOTAL: 18 credit hours

Acceptance requirements are:

1. Minimum GPA of 2.0 overall.
2. Minimum grade of B- in either PD 120 or PD 212.

Successful completion of the Minor in Environmental Design requires a minimum GPA of 2.5 in PD-prefixed courses.

Applications are available from the Department of Urban and Regional Planning, 116 Hayes Hall, South Campus, or on the Web at www.ap.buffalo.edu/planning/admissions/ or wings.buffalo.edu/ap/advising/.

The UB School of Architecture and Planning has an admission policy that actively encourages applicants from protected groups and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, or veteran status. Admission is competitive, and applicants are reviewed according to the admission criteria. Acceptance of students in the pre-professional, professional, and post-professional programs is determined on the basis of the applicants' qualifications and experience. However, since the school's size is limited, the programs may exercise discretionary powers of selection. Courses and programs offered by the UB School of Architecture and Planning may include an instructional technology fee.

By accepting responsibility for their education, students enhance the development of their academic, social, and career goals. As a condition of enrollment, students are responsible for reviewing, understanding, and abiding by the university's regulations, procedures, requirements, and deadlines as described in official publications, including the university's undergraduate catalog, UB Web sites, and official university e-mail communications. In addition, all students are required to positively affirm their knowledge of, and adherence to, UB's Student Conduct Rules, University Standards and Administrative Regulations prior to their inaugural semester at UB. Asserting a lack of knowledge of university regulations will not be accepted as a basis for an exception to these regulations. I certify that all information, as well as any supplementary forms or statements, is complete and correct. If accepted, I agree to obey the statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations of the University.
