

Community Development and Urban Management Curriculum (for students entering prior to fall 2009)

Intro Courses

- PD 535 Urban Management and Governance (also a foundation elective); and either
- PD 606 Community Development Processes or PD 595 Central City Revitalization

Methods Course

- PD 561 Qualitative Methods for Planning

Elective Courses (minimum two)

- PD 520 Housing and Social Policy
- PD 525 Financing Urban Development
- PD 526 Strategic Planning and Implementation
- PD 539 Local Government Finance and Budgeting
- PD 541 Nonprofit Management
- PD 543 Negotiation and Conflict Resolution
- PD 559 Tourism and Recreation Policy and Planning
- PD 562 Transportation, Land Use, and Urban Form
- PD 569 GIS Applications
- PD 570 GIS in Planning
- PD 595 Central City Revitalization (may be used for elective credit if not taken as an intro course)
- PD 606 Community Development Processes (may be used for elective credit if not taken as an intro course)
- GEO 528 Geography and Social Theory

Recommended Foundational Electives

- PD 508 Race, Class Gender and the City
- PD 535 Urban Management and Governance
- PD 538 Economic Concepts

Culminating Exercise

- Thesis on topic in Community Development and Urban Management or
- Professional Project on topic in Community Development and Urban Management