

Economic and International Development Curriculum (for students entering prior to fall 2009)

Intro Courses

- PD 522 Economic Development and Industrial Change;
- PD 576 Comparative International Development

Methods Course

- PD 513 Quantitative Methods for Planning

Elective Courses (minimum two)

- PD 526 Strategic Planning and Implementation
- PD 559 Tourism and Recreation Planning and Policy
- PD 563 Cities and Globalization
- PD 575 Development Planning in Practice
- PD 577 Planning in Action
- PD 579 Global Issues and Sustainable Future
- ECO 610 Macroeconomic Theory
- ECO 665 Microeconomic Theory
- ECO 787 Urban Economics
- ELP 566 Comparative and Global Education
- GEO 531 Introduction to International Business and Trade
- MGE 681 International Trade and Finance
- MGE 602 Global Economy and Business Firms
- PSC 504 International Politics
- SOC 620 Sociology of Development

Recommended Foundational Electives

- PD 538 Economic Concepts
- PD 535 Urban Management and Governance

Culminating Exercise (choose one)

- Thesis on Economic and International Development
- Professional Project on Economic and International Development