

GENERALIST TRACK

Option #1 (Practice)

Complete 2 courses (6 credits) and one studio (6 credits) beyond the MUP degree requirements (core courses, studio, colloquium, and culminating exercise)

- 1. One urban planning laboratory-practicum (or “studio”) (6 credits) (note: one 6-credit studio already required)
- 2. Choose two introductory courses from the other five specializations: (6 credits)
  - a. PD 522 Economic Development and Industrial Change
  - b. PD 535 Urban Management and Governance
  - c. PD 566 Urban Planning and Design II
  - d. PD 568 Environmental Planning and Policy
  - e. PD 569 GIS Applications
  - f. PD 575 Development Planning in Practice
  - g. PD 576 Comparative International Development
  - h. PD 606 Community Development Processes

Option #2 (Methods)

Complete 4 courses (12 credits) beyond the MUP degree requirements (core courses, studio, colloquium, and culminating exercise)

- 1. PD 513 Quantitative Methods for Planning (3 credits)
- 2. One additional methods course chosen from: (3 credits)
  - a. PD 523 New Media in Planning
  - b. PD 561 Qualitative Methods for Planning
  - c. PD 571 3-D Visual and Urban Simulation
  - d. PD 578 Environmental Planning Methods
  - e. PD 601 Advanced GIS Applications
  - f. PD 602 Environmental Planning Support Systems
- 3. Choose two introductory courses from the other five specializations: (6 credits)
  - a. PD 522 Economic Development and Industrial Change
  - b. PD 535 Urban Management and Governance
  - c. PD 566 Urban Planning and Design II
  - d. PD 568 Environmental Planning and Policy
  - e. PD 569 GIS Applications
  - f. PD 575 Development Planning in Practice
  - g. PD 576 Comparative International Development
  - h. PD 606 Community Development Processes

Director:

Daniel Hess

dbhess@buffalo.edu